About the Artist: Robert Prender lives in Bowie, Maryland. He is in the fifth grade at The Summit School, a co-ed, not-for-profit school for bright students with dyslexia and other learning differences. The school emphasizes the gifts each student brings, along with helping each one reach his or her potential and enhance his or her skills. Robert likes to play outdoors, draw, and build things with his hands. The title of this piece is “A View From My Room.”
